SEPTEMBER 2017
Messages from our 2017-2018
Deer Valley #3871 Presidents

From Worthy President Frank Ferris

Brothers

Welcome to September! Here’s a short story I saw, then stole, then adapted to fit my needs. Enjoy!

A friend and I were at a party where the owners of the home had a fire pit; suddenly we saw a snake come out of the flames wiggling in pain. My friend reached into the flames and pulled out the snake to save it and when he did it bit his hand.

My friend’s reaction was to shake the snake loose and when he did it fell back into the fire. As he started to reach out once again to pull the snake from the fire I called out to him, “Hey, don’t be a fool for a third time, if it bit you the first two times it will bite you again”.

His respond stopped me in my tracks. He said “Just because the nature of the snake is to bite me, that doesn't mean that I will alter my nature, which is to help”. With that he picked up a stick and reached in to finally pull out and free the snake from the fire and a certain crispy death.

The moral is simple: Don't allow the negative nature of some or all of those around you to change the positive nature within you to share with all. Nothing is wrong with being smart (i.e. use a stick), but help, save, support, encourage, and strengthen those around you regardless of their actions or reactions.

Focus more on who you are and what you represent than what others may say or think about you.

With that, I’ve never been big on writing in general nor about what’s coming or what’s already been done since the newsletter itself is submitted weeks before any given month is over! I need a ghost writer! Anyone willing to assist me in writing my portion of the newsletter? Stop by and see me. “I’m a nice guy and you may even score a drink, LOL!”

Many thanks come in so many shapes and forms that they go without saying and some without even noticing. I will anyway. Thank you!

Frank
Madam President Cindy McGee

Dear Sisters,

August brought our first regular Charity…Spinal Cord Injury Fund. We had 2 Great Band Nights and we appreciate all of those talented musicians who donated their time and talents to this fund. It supports the “Exoskeleton Project” that allows those who have lost feeling in the lower half of their body to be able to walk again with the use of these suits. We raised over $800 in the first week. How fabulous is that?

It is also the first “Pasta Night” for the charities. It makes my heart smile seeing more people volunteer in ways that make them happy. Please let your officers know how you would love to join in. The more volunteers we have, the better the ideas and the lighter the load.

This is the Auxiliary’s first month back with all weeks of Friday meals. We will be doing Fish Fry’s on the third and fifth week of September. We will have food for all other weeks. They will be specials of the Auxiliary. We hope you enjoy what our ladies are so proud to produce.

September will be fun filled with a number of awesome charity events by Sarah and Al Reynolds. They are the Charity Chairpersons of the Cancer Fund. I know they have some great ideas to have fun while raising money for a charity near and dear to most everyone’s hearts. Please come and support them in raising money for a fund we all hope finds a cure. How many do we know who have succumbed to this disease?

As we think of those lost, let’s remember who we have here. Look out for each other. Remember we are Brothers and Sisters. Count on each other as such….take that extra step.

Best to all of you,

Cindy

TOUCH OF HUMOR

A family who lived deep in the woods had no electricity in their home. The wife was about to have her first child, so the father hurried to find a doctor.

At nightfall, the doctor asked the man to bring the lantern. After their baby girl was delivered, the man put the lantern back on the table.

Suddenly the doctor said, “Hurry, bring the lantern back,” and the man complied. Another baby girl was delivered, and the man returned the lantern to the talbe.

“Quick,” said the doctor, “Bring the light back,”

“Doc,” said the man, “you don’t think they’re attracted to the light, do you?”

A Touch of Life

The woman pulled her car over to the side of the road when she heard the police car’s siren.

“How long have you been driving without a taillight?” demanded the officer.

“Oh, no!” screamed the woman. She jumped out and ran to the back of the car.

“Just calm down,” said the officer, “It isn’t that serious.”

“But wait till my husband finds out!” “Where is he?”

“He’s in the trailer that was hitched to the car!”

The Electronic Message Board. The Trustees worked very hard earning money for the new video message board. There were a lot of hamburgers/hot dogs prepared this summer and Gary’s wonderful sandwiches to earn enough money to purchase the board. Give them a big thank you. You will no longer be looking at the messy white board on the wall for any event changes etc. Things will be added as they change or happen. We hope you enjoy the new board.

People Helping Pantries

The whole month of October, Deer Valley FOE, as well as all the majority of Eagle’s Clubs across the US and Canada are doing a canned food drive.

Ours is benefiting a local church pantry.

Please start stocking up your cans for those less fortunate.

Let’s start now and beat the last 2 years in donations!!!

Let’s show our community how much we are here to help!!!

Tip: Some grocery stores, I use Safeway, have apps for your phones where you can sign up and get membership benefits. They call it Just for U. Every week they have at least 1 coupon that will give you money off your order. $5 off $50 purchase, $7 off $70 purchase, etc. I look for cans under 60 cents each and buy the amount equal to my $ off. It helps me get to the desired amount required and benefits the hungry without costing me a thing! In 3 weeks, I have 27 cans!

If I didn’t use the app, I wouldn’t have any additional money off my order. To me, it’s found money and why not use it to help others? Let’s do our part to help others!
